

After the renovation

Before

Front page of local paper

Morgantown, WV • 1985

A turn of the century residence was historically renovated to win an award for Morgantown Main Street. Finding original paint color by chipping the existing paint, researching for original photos and finding original doors in basement allowed true restoration of the structure.