

genkan entry

finished rear view

new basement

kitchen interior

before

doors to kitchen

Fox Chapel, Pittsburgh PA • 1991

interior assisted by Steve Bourne

An extensive remodeling and addition to a very modest 50th ranch style brick home located on a beautiful rolling hill site. Some design features include a brightly colored kitchen addition that terminates into a breakfast room with large glass wall with the view of hills, and once dark and damp basement that was turned into a bright recreation room by introduction of an open stairwell and large windows.